day that while a spiritual warfare is being waged against the authority of the Roman Pontiff in Italy, Germany, Switzerland, and other Continental States, and every precaution being taken to curtail the influence heretofore wielded by the priests of the Roman church over the minds and consciences of the people, - while numbers of the most pious and learned of the priesthood of that ancient church are casting saids the fetters which quad them to the Vatican, and organizing names, such as "Old Catholics," "Liberal Catholics," " Reformed Catholics," etc., in contradistinction to the Church of Rome,we see on the part of a large and not by any means uninfluential body of the priesthood of the established Church of England, a disposition to re-introduce into that church many of the doctrines and practices of the Roman Church, which at the time of the Reformation were discarded from her ritual as being Office. without any foundation whatever in the scriptures of divice truth. While many of the priesthood of Rome are seeking to do away with auricular confession, for instance, the priesthood of England are introducing it among their people; and so with many other doctrines peculiar to the Church of Rome. If these men are honestly persuaded that Romanism is right and Protestantism wrong, why do they not make a clean breast of it, and act upon their convictions? They would then be entitled to credit for consistency, even from those who could cherish no sympathy for the change which has been wrought in their views. Every mail from England brings additional information of the operations of the ritualistic priesthood in the Established Church of England. Amongst some of the latest items of intelligence is the startling announcement that a pilgrimage to Jerusalem has been organized. Those cler- de10 gymen who espouse the peculiar views of this movement, are bent on carrying them into execution, despite disapprobation of Bishops, or remonstrance of congregations. Rishops may direct, or congregations be in arms with indignant protests, it makes no difference to them, -they are determined to have their own way. One of the English Churches, that of St. Barnabas, Pimlico, is at the present time before the public in the Consistory Court, over the contention as to whether a "baldachine" shall or shall not be erected over the communion table in that church, the placing of which canopy would NEW ILLUSIONS be significant of the corporal presence in the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. Upon this question, counsel on both sides have been contending with bitter earnestness for several days. As a specimen of the obstinate Admission determination of ritualistic ministers to have Reserved Seats their own way, let us read what one of them has to say on the subject, being an extract from a work en each day between 1 P. M. and 4 P. M. " Secular Judgments on Spiritual Matters," by Rev. Orby Shipley, M.A. That grammes. pious individual says : "Forbidden to light two candles on the altar, I would place them above the altar; prevented from mixing the chalice in the sanctuary, I would mix water with the wine in the vestry; if it be unlaw- DIAMOND RING. ful to kneel in adoration during the prayer of consecration, I would genuflect; if it be unlawful to genufiect, I would bow. Is it against the decision of the Jadicial Committee to elevate the paten? I would elevate the Host. Does the Court, with physical force, remove from me the eucharistic vestments, and remove me from my position ments, and remove me from my position eastward as a sacrificing priest? I would wear a chausible shaped surplice; and abandoning the catacombal position facing east, I would stand basilica-wise after the Pontifical use of St. Peter's at Rome, facing principles of the St. Peter's at Rome, facing principles of St. Peter's at west. Any technical flaw I should grasp at any legal quibble I should cling to; any theological loophole I should pass through sideways; any double meaning in language I should take advantage of. I should take refuge in the all-powerful defence of the weak. I should act simply on principle-the principle to do God's work as best I might under difficult circumstances, for his glory, the good of my neighbour, and my own salvation." What with such antagonistic elements within the Church of England, and the fierce attacks of Dissenters from without, owing to this leaning towards Romanism, she will have a very hard battle to fight. What will be the result of this internal wrangling and external warfare, it is difficult to say; but one thing is certain, some very important issues are pending which ere long will develop themselves,

THERE can be no better illustration of the These can be no better illustration of the approved quality of the groceries, wines and spirits sold by John Boyd, Patrick's Corner, Johnson street, than in the large measure of patrosage that has been extended him since he commenced business. Every article is spoken of as being the very best. Connoisseurs he commenced business. Every article is spoken of as being the very best.
